CIC'S JANUARY TO MARCH 2016 NEWSLETTER

FOR MEMBERS, GRADUATES & FUTURE MEMBERS AROUND THE WORLD

NEW CIC WEBSITE

Visit the College's new website with full and expanded details about courses available, at:
www.cambridgecollege.co.uk

Let us know what you think about YOUR College's new website!

The new website also gives lots of news, comments and advice from CIC Members; and explains new ways to enrol, pay fees, and much more.

4th GENERATION JOINS CIC

We are proud to welcome Hanna Lawson, who has become the fourth generation of the family to be involved with and work for the College.

Hanna is the daughter of Vice Principal David Lawson, and granddaughter of Principal Dr Stephen Lawson. She is currently at the University of St. Andrews studying English and History. During the vacation she has been "learning the ropes", assisting in the College's very busy Examinations Department.

NEW COURSES FOR 2016

The College has introduced two exciting new Diploma Programs for 2016:
CLASSROOM PSYCHOLOGY & MANAGEMENT FOR TEACHERS

This Diploma Program is written and designed for future, new and current teachers, as well as those studying education. The course is a modern, practical guide to teaching students and managing classrooms; it explains how to become an exceptional teacher, create 'learning communities' in schools, and improve student's academic results. It deals with student development, motivation, discipline, safety, and more.

The Program Fee is only GB£200 or US$400.

COMMERCIAL PRACTICE & LAW

This interesting and important Diploma Program covers a wide range of commerce, law and business topics which all managers, administrators and business people need to know. It deals with and explains about commercial contracts, legal liability, company law and many legal and commercial matters which must be understood and known for business success and progress, and for career success as well.

The Program Fee is only GB£200 or US$400.

Nominees receive a free Program for CIC's 80th Anniversary - below and pages 3 & 4

Patricia Morris nominated Julia Rudder (Barbados) for a Diploma in Accounting, saying: "This program will allow Julia to sharpen her skills and further her career."

Malachi Kooitse nominated Kadimo Sebera (Botswana) for a Diploma in Marketing, saying: "Enrolling with CIC on this course will help Kadimo improve her marketing skills."

"A Symbol of Honour & Respect"

CIC Graduate Nganga J. Capitao wrote from Angola:

"It is with great satisfaction that I write. I thank you for the valuable work your institution has been providing around the world all through the years. This is definitely one of the best things that has happened in my life. A Diploma from Cambridge is inarguably a symbol of honour and respect."

SPECIAL FEATURE

Being part of the oil industry and working for a multinational company, this great achievement represents a turning point in my professional career! My boss (in the picture) was pleased and surprised to see my Diploma. I'm looking forward to continue with my CIC studies soon."

SPECIAL FEATURE

'The Best Education, Amazing Courses'

CIC Graduate Dexter Graham (Solomon Islands):

"Providing a taste of the best education, professionalism and outstanding skills - that is Cambridge International College - a success and a milestone one can count on and benefit for a life time. Thank you for the amazing courses which seem very advanced and prepared me for going into the teaching profession. After graduating from CIC I was given a Scholarship to a local university to do a Graduate Diploma in Teaching. Long live CIC!"

Gerald Viola speaking as Press Secretary of the President of Malawi.

"My Achievements through CIC"

Gerald Viola, Presidential Press Secretary, Malawi, wrote:

I graduated from Cambridge International College with a Diploma in Advertising and Public Relations in 2003. This made Malawi Broadcasting Corporation promote me from the Programmes Department to the Business Department in 2004. The PR element saw me moving to become Special Assistant to the Minister after the elections that were held on 19 May in 2004. As I continued working and after leaving MBC, it pleased the President of Malawi to appoint me Director of Information in 2014. Today as I write, I am the Presidential Press Secretary all because of the PR and Advertising Diploma I gained after completing my course with Cambridge.

*Once again, thank you CIC!

Gerald Viola, Presidential Press Secretary

Introducing the Western Union 'Global Pay for Students' Fee payment method

The Western Union 'Global Pay for Students' service allows you to pay your CIC Fees in your local currency (or in British Pounds, or in US Dollars or in Euros) - quickly, conveniently, without delays or deductions, and at a fixed exchange rate.

Western Union 'Global Pay for Students' confirms a fixed exchange rate for you for 3 days, giving you certainty and security about the cost of transferring your fee payment. The fixed exchange rate quote is received by clicking on: CIC's "Global Pay" on the CIC website - and you can also complete and send all your registration details to CIC as well at the same time.

As soon as you have followed the payment instructions from Western Union 'Global Pay for Students', your payment will be processed and it will quickly be received by CIC, with your personal Reference Number and registration details. CIC will then enrol you rapidly as a Member of CIC!

Details about using Western Union 'Global Pay for Students' are given on CIC's website in two places:

- (a) on the FAQs (Frequently Asked Questions) page click "HOW CAN I MAKE A FEE PAYMENT TO CIC?" and
- (b) After choosing a Course to enrol for, click "ADD TO BASKET" and then "WESTERN UNION 'GLOBAL PAY FOR STUDENTS' SERVICE".

SOME OF THE GREAT MANY NEWS AND SUCCESS STORIES RECENTLY RECEIVED FROM CIC MEMBERS AND GRADUATES WORLDWIDE

They succeeded and so can you!

CIC provides study, training and education to men and women in countries all over the world for rewarding careers, top jobs, development and respect.

Dennis Katota wrote from Zambia:

"I owe my success to CIC and I recommend the College to anyone wishing to upgrade their career and personal life. After assessing my performance my employers were very proud and promoted me twice - I am now Warehouse Supervisor!"

John Kalabo wrote from Tanzania:

"I thank CIC for their good work educating people world-wide. After receiving my Diploma I have been accepted to study a Bachelor degree at the Open University of Tanzania this year. Without my CIC Certificate I would not have qualified."

Helen Kristel Bernardino wrote from Saudi Arabia:

"I was promoted from Administrative Assistant to Recruitment Specialist in a tertiary hospital here in Saudi Arabia. The British qualification I achieved through CIC helped me to be approved by the promotions and credentials committee."

Melchiade Muhawenimana wrote from Rwanda:

"After I had completed my study and received my Diploma in Human Resource Management from CIC my professional personality changed and the way in which I was working also improved. Congratulations to Cambridge International College."

Samuel C G Benjamin wrote from Mozambique:

"The content of CIC Study Materials is so useful with detailed, clear information. I am so enthusiastic with the combination of valuable Manuals, practical case studies and assessments. I am moving forward in my workplace and my workmates are impressed."

Jeremias Nguema Nsue Avoro wrote from Ghana:

"I really thank CIC for training me. The courses you provide are professionally structured for learning and simplified for clarity and understanding and importantly for student development. Your services are the best in the world. I hope to pursue the EBA next."

Sahilu Baye Alemu wrote from Israel (Ethiopian Nationality):

"I would like to thank Cambridge International College for the uninterrupted academic and professional support you offered me during my study period. I have just received my final grades and look forward to attending my graduation."

Christiana Baun wrote from Sierra Leone:

"I am really grateful to CIC for their distance learning with its wide range of disciplines. I am proud to be one of the graduates at the time of the 80th Celebrations. The reading materials are so rich and always serve as reference material whenever you need them."

Paul Siune Tola wrote from Papua New Guinea:

"Words cannot express how grateful I am. The feeling of receiving my Diploma from CIC is so overwhelming that to say "Thank You" is not just enough. I am now very confident in both my spoken and written English. Moreover, I have achieved a high merit which makes me very proud because I was teaching as well as studying at the same time."

Ngoti David Chalunga wrote from Sudan:

"I am greatly happy to write and tell you what has happened since I studied with CIC. In my previous work I was employed with low pay and tough work. But now I am employed by an international company as a Supervisor and earning a much better salary. My thanks goes to CIC, may you live longer so that our children may see your wonders."
