SPECIAL CONGRATULATIONS TO THESE CIC MEMBERS! Professional Success, Personal Success, Study Success

WILLIE MAEOBIA from THE SOLOMON ISLANDS

'At Cambridge International College, dreams can really come true.'

"Here is my story: My name is Mr Willie Maeobia. I was born in the Solomon Islands. I did an International Diploma course in Business English & Letter Writing with Cambridge International College.

The fees are reasonable and affordable. You get value for your money. The courses are tailored to suit whatever schedule you have. They are practical and down-to-earth. I highly recommend CIC to anyone who aspires to get qualified in an area of personal interest to make his or her own way in the world.

I am an aspiring author and passionate about Writing and Entrepreneurship. What I learned in the course boosted my confidence to construct letters of enquiry to professional editors and publishers, and that got me to being a published author today.

My fiction book (see pictured) "Deported into Destiny" is now available on Amazon, Barnes & Noble, Kobo (Canada) and iBooks. With hard work, determination and perseverance, dreams can really come true. My dream came through with CIC."

Congratulations for a Masters Degree!

BABUCARR CHAM from THE GAMBIA

Mr Cham has studied CIC Diploma Programs in:

- Human Resource Management,
- Modern Management & Administration,
- Advanced Management & Administration Theory.

"You helped give me the opportunity to learn and acquire the right skill in contemporary management."

His CIC study helped to gain him a place at Rome Business School (Italy). In February he wrote:

"I am pleased to inform you that I have finally completed my Masters Degree in International Human Resources Management and am delighted to send you my Graduation Ceremony pictures."

HARRISON NAMIZEKO from ZAMBIA is a TRIPLE MASTER

In 2013 Harrison completed CIC's Baccalaureate in Business Administration and in 2014 enrolled for the Master of Business Administration Programme. He successfully completed that Programme in 2016; he then re-enrolled and completed a second Specialisation in 2017; and in April 2018 he completed an amazing third Specialisation with Cambridge International College.

The College is pleased to recognise this outstanding Triple Achievement as he is a worthy 'Master' of Business Administration:

- ★ Financial Management
- ★ Human Resource Management
- ★ Logistics & Supply Chain Management

CIC Principal Dr Stephen Lawson in Japan and Taiwan and with Dr Kenneth Chionh, CIC's Regional Affiliate

CIC's remarkable and inspirational Principal & Chairman of the Academic Board, Dr Stephen Lawson, visited Japan and Taiwan earlier this year.

Dr Lawson, who travelled with his wife, commented: "We had a most enjoyable 8 days sailing around Taiwan, stopping at busy and vibrant different ports each day; Taiwan is a fast-developing country and tourist destination.

We were very fortunate to arrive in Japan at the start of the cherry blossom season, with mile upon mile of blossom, both white and pink; there was a holiday carnival atmosphere and Japanese people are very courteous."

In Taipei, capital of Taiwan, Dr Lawson spent time with Dr Chionh, Head of one of CIC's Affiliate organizations. Institute for Professional Development (IPD), of which Dr Chionh is Head, has been a CIC Affiliate since 2003. Pictured above are Dr and Mrs Lawson and Dr Chionh. The IPD focuses on management, education, training and development courses with CIC; pictured opposite is a group registered with CIC through IPC in March 2018.

The majority of CIC's Members study by pure distance-learning but some have lectures with Affiliates like IPD.

Opposite is a picture of Dr Chionh lecturing Members. Another 10 men and women registered with CIC through IPD in May, and in June another 22 were awarded certificates in the fields of teaching, education and training.
