APPEALS POLICY and Procedures (including an Appeals Form)

APPEALS POLICY AND PROCEDURES

POLICY STATEMENT

Cambridge International College has an Appeals Policy which derives from and compliments its Equal Opportunities Policy and Moderations Policy, designed to ensure that nobody is unfairly prejudiced or unfairly judged in the marking or assessment of their Examination Paper(s) or assignment(s) or other piece(s) of work submitted to the College.

1. Assessments

1.1 Cambridge International College's aim is to provide a fair method of assessment based on equality of opportunity to all of its Members.

1.2 Assessors are familiar with Cambridge International College's Equal Opportunities Policy for Members, Moderations Policy, and Academic Misconduct Policy, and regular quality assurance checks are made that Assessors act in accordance with the policies, as detailed in the College's Guidance for Assessors document.

1.3 The key point to highlight is that every Examination or assignment or other piece of work which is given a fail award by an Assessor, is automatically and always double-checked (moderated and re-assessed) and undergoes a second assessment (marking). Thus, any Examination or assignment, or other piece of work for which a fail mark/grade is released by Cambridge International College, has always been double-checked.

1.4 Should a Member fail an Examination or assignment or other piece of work then a written/printed explanation is sent to the Member by post and/or email, explaining why that result was given, and giving advice on how to do better in future, and offering the opportunity to attempt a new and different Examination or assignment or other piece of work. Thus, reasons why the answers did not achieve a pass mark are always provided. Again, do note that every Examination or assignment or other piece of work result which is given a Fail has always been reviewed or moderated by either the Principal or Vice Principal personally, or an appointed moderating Assessor, in accordance with the College's Moderations Policy.

1.5 If a Member achieves a pass mark/grade but is still unhappy with his/her mark/grade, the Member may apply to sit a new and different Examination Paper or to submit a new assignment or other piece of work, for which there is a charge. There is no guarantee that a Member will achieve a better mark or grade if a different Paper is attempted or a new submission made.

2. Appeals

2.1 In the rare event that an appeal is made, the standard first response is to explain that the Examination Paper or assignment or other piece of work has been marked by two Assessors and has passed through the College's official Moderation and checking system; and that the College has a very experienced set of Assessors, and a thorough, rigorous and accredited Examinations, Internal Moderation and Assessment Quality Control system; and to advise the Member to carefully read through the documentation and explanation he/she has received (as an appeal or complaint against a fail result tends to be an automatic and un-thought-out response). Appeals must be received within three months of the original award/grade/result date.

2.2 If a Member is insistent and convinced that he/she has a valid grievance, he/she should submit either an Appeals Form (see attached) or a letter by email or post outlining his/her grievance and/or reason for appeal. On receipt of that the Principal or Vice Principal or Head Assessor may decide to review the Examination Paper or assignment or other piece of work again (in effect, a third and final assessment) and provide additional comment upon the Examination Paper or assignment or other piece of work answers and the reason it was awarded a fail grade. Assuming that the appeal is not justifiable, the College will further explain that the College insists on maintaining its standards, and will not allow sub-standard Answers Papers to be given a pass grade. The College might offer, free-of-charge or at reduced fee, for the Member to answer a Training Test or Past Paper (in which an assessed paper is returned to the Member) so that he/she can see when the answers were good, poor or need improving.

2.3 Each complaint is handled on a case-by-case basis. But if the Member refuses to accept the original grade, or to accept advice given, or to accept any of the solutions or options provided by the College, then the College will stand by its decision and reserves the right to refuse to enter in to any further communication on the matter.

The College will not reduce its standards or requirements to 'pass' a sub-standard Paper or assignment or other piece of work, or a Member who cannot show he or she has reached a 'pass' standard. As stated in the Study & Training Guide supplied to all Members, the College reserves the final right not to enter into any communication concerning any result awarded.
